

Position: Security Technician

Internal Position: Security Technician

Position #A10100

Atlantic CommTech Corporation, a Woman Owned Small Business has an opening for a Security Technician to join our growing company in the Northern New Jersey/New York area. Due to the nature of the work, only U.S. Citizens will be considered for this position.

SPECIFIC DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Review client requirements and technical documents in order to prepare and conduct surveys, installation plans, deployment and cutover of electronic security projects for various customers on a worldwide basis.
- Must be able to install cables, conduit, wire ways, equipment cabinets, panels, terminations and electronic equipment as well as install hardware and software for access control, CCTV, intrusion detection and related systems.
- Will understand the policies, procedures, standards, and the goals of the organization and will direct the execution of all aspects of installations with those in mind.
- Travel: 75% or more depending on task efforts at around the NY/NJ Metro region

SPECIFIC SKILLS:

- Self performs and manages subcontractors in the installation of intrusion detection, access control, CCTV and data communication systems.
- On-site work will include installation and configuration of head-end computer systems, installation, termination, and calibration of field devices and sensors, and installation of communication infrastructure including conduit, enclosures and fiber optic cables
- Reading, interpreting, and drawing electrical, electronic, and electromechanical schematics as well as the ability to update "as-built" drawings
- Construction management experience
- Ability to work in a demanding, deadline-driven environment
- Strong verbal communication skills

QUALIFICATIONS/REQUIREMENTS:

- Associates degree in electronics, electrical systems or related field with four years of field experience or equivalent combination of collegiate education and experience.
- Must have extensive knowledge of electronics, electrical systems, computer programming, as well as site management and installation experience.
- Experience in dealing with Department of Defense personnel preferred.
- Employees should also be adept in the use of the following or similar systems: AMAG, Vindicator Technologies, Software House, Hirsch Electronics, Lenel, Pelco CCTV, and OnSys with preference for Hirsch

Atlantic CommTech Corporation is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer (EEO/AA) offering a comprehensive compensation package including: Health and Dental Insurance, Vision and Life Insurance, Short Term & Long-Term Disability, 401 (K), Paid Time Off (PTO), Paid Company Holidays, Tuition Assistance Program and more.