

ACT
OPMAS-E Vacancy Announcement

POSITION

Carpenter - Shipping and Receiving - Temporary Wackernheim, Germany

OPENED POSTED CLOSING

8-Mar-17

Until Filled

POSITION REQUIREMENTS

TRAINING AND EDUCATION:	High school graduate, or attendance in an advanced military, or commercial course, in the applicable field.
DUTIES:	Responsible for the preparation of Materials and Equipment for shipment by size, dimension, weight and security classification. Required to evaluate carpentry needs for the constructions of crates, boxes and a verity of special shipment containers for outbound shipments ensuring precise measurements, demensions and weight construction requirements in accordance with Department of Defense, Army, United States Army Informations System Command and 5th Signal Command regulations and directives.
EXPERIENCE:	Minimum of two years experience in Carpentry and Transportation field is required. One year of experience in processing, packing, unloading, receipt, review and control / distribution of material is required.
SECURITY CLEARANCE:	SECRET
SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS:	Individual must be fluent in reading, writing and speaking the English language. Must have basic mathematical skills. Must have expereince in the use of power tools such as, all types of power saws and variety of power drills. The individual must be able to qualify for and operate Government provided vehicles up to 7.5 tons and Material Handling Equipment (MHE) up to 6,000 pounds. Possess or be able to obtain a security clearance.

HOW TO APPLY

Qualified and interested employees submit a request for consideration and current resume through their supervisor to Atlantic CommTech Corp.
opmas@act-corp.com

POC: Jessica S. Smith / Sabine Goeller, COML: 06371-91 30 61