

Information Assurance Engineer

Assignment Levels: Senior

Clearance Level: Top Secret

Education: Bachelor's Degree

ID:

Location: Remote

Start:

Job Duties:

The IA Engineer will develop and deliver technical solutions for Atlantic CommTech Corporation's (ACT-Corp) IA business across DoD, DHS and other federal Agencies. In writing technical proposals, the IA Engineer will coordinate with internal resources and external subcontractors in development of technical solutions. Focused on securing the network perimeter through the operations of the firewall, virtual private networks (VPNs), intrusion detection system/intrusion prevention system (IDS/IPS), and other network devices/software. Will support cyber engagements and perform vulnerability assessment using DoD provided tools for scanning, tracking, recording and reporting vulnerabilities. Familiarity and knowledge of the DISA's Vulnerability Management System (VMS) tool and the Enterprise Mission Assurance Support Service (eMASS) tool. Perform trend and analysis of vulnerability scan data. Ability to support Risk Management Framework for client engagements leading to systems Authority to Operate. Develop draft TOs, SOPs, checklists, guides, best practices and procedures for conducting vulnerability assessments

Qualifications (Possess experience in the following):

- Certified Information Systems Security Professional (CISSP)
- IAM Level 2 (Highly Desired)
- DoD Architecture and Risk Management Framework
- Network Engineering
- Cyber Security
- Experience in Vulnerability Assessments
- Experience with managing and maintaining HBSS products
- Experience in Information Assurance Vulnerability Assessments (IAVA)
- Proposal Development and Capture

- Transmission Control Protocol (TCP)/Internet Protocol (IP), wide area networking protocols, multi-protocol label switching and network encryption protocols

Required Skills/Education: Candidates must be a US Citizen and possess a DoD Top Secret Clearance. IA Engineer will travel approximately 25 – 35% of the time. BS with minimum of 10 years' experience in cyber services. Possess strong organizational skills and ability to multi-task across many different areas to include working multiple technical proposals in parallel.

Resume Submission: Submit resumes to jobs@act-corp.com

About Atlantic CommTech Corporation

Atlantic CommTech Corporation (ACT-Corp) is headquartered in Norfolk, VA with an operating location in Ramstein, Germany. Founded in 1999, ACT-Corp is a woman owned small business providing a wide range of technical services to the U.S. Government. We have successfully completed projects and provided services on every populated continent and in over 138 countries around the world. Our primary customers are U.S. federal government agencies and prime contractors. The federal government agencies that we serve are the Department of Defense (Air Force, Army, Navy, and Marine Corps), Department of State, Department of Homeland Security (U.S. Coast Guard), and the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Atlantic CommTech is an equal opportunity employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status or any other characteristic protected by law.